

GEORGIAN DAYS in Tartu 26-28 May

26 May

12.30–13.30 Lossi 3 main hall

The Ambassador Extraordinary of Georgia to the Republic of Estonia
Tea Akhvlediani is opening a photo exhibition dedicated to the Georgian alphabet

14.15–17.30 Lossi 36-214

ROUND TABLE: “Georgia – Bridging Cultures and Diversities”

Working language: English

■ Thea Akhvlediani, the Ambassador Extraordinary of Georgia to the Republic of Estonia

Back to European family: Georgia's Path from Independence to Euro-Atlantic Aspirations

■ Olga Bogdanova, Deputy Head for Academic Affairs, UT Johan Skytte Institute of Political Sciences

Few Remarks About the Project: Possibilities and limits, challenges and obstacles of transferring CEE EU pre-accession best practices and experience to Moldova's and Georgia's pre-accession process (EU-PREACC)

■ Stefano Braghiroli, Lecturer, UT Johan Skytte Institute of Political Sciences

Dimensions of European Integration in Georgia

■ Andrey Makarychev, Visiting Professor, UT Johan Skytte Institute of Political Sciences

Georgian Conservatism and the Prospects of Europeanization

■ Giuli Shabashvili, Associate Professor, Tbilisi State University / Visiting Lecturer, UT College of Foreign Languages and Cultures

Aspects of Women's Empowerment in Georgia

■ Alexander Chanadiri, UT Consultant for Eastern Europe

History of Georgian Students in Estonia

■ Nona Tatiashvili, Tbilisi State University, Exchange Erasmus Mundus PhD Student at TUT

Maintain Minority Languages in the Age of Globalization: Case of Georgia and Estonia