The International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) is pleased to announce a competition for the University Administration Support Program (UASP) supported by the Carnegie Corporation of New York. The University Administration Support Program contributes to improving administration in a selected number of universities in the following countries: Armenia, Belarus, Georgia, Ukraine, Ghana, Tanzania and Uganda.

The University Administration Support Program provides competitively awarded short-term fellowships for mid and senior-level university administrators to spend approximately eight weeks with counterparts at respected US public universities to work on specific university administration reform projects. While in the US the fellows are required to prepare a case study on the management issue addressed. The case studies are then published and distributed to universities participating in the program.

The fellowship is fully funded and provides:
- J-1 visa support for the period of the program
- Round-trip travel from fellows' home cities to the US host institutions
- Accident and sickness insurance
- Housing and $40/day daily allowance for meals and incidentals
- Professional development allowance of $1000 for educational materials, professional conferences and membership in U.S. professional associations
- Opening and closing workshops in Washington, DC
- Grant opportunities for UASP alumni

See application for eligibility requirements and selection criteria.
