

SEMINAR

„MODERN TRENDS IN MEDICAL EDUCATION”

23th -24th January 2012, Tbilisi

VENUE - Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University

1, Chavchavadze Ave.

23 January
10.00am-10.15am	Welcoming Remarks Dr. Lika Glonti (Director, Tempus National Office) Dr. Alexander Tsiskaridze (Dean, Faculty of Medicine, TSU)
10.15am-11.15am	Postgraduate and continuing medical education in Europe - structures and processes- I Session Prof. David Gordon
11.15am-11.30am	Coffee break
11.30am-12.30am	Postgraduate and continuing medical education in Europe - structures and processes-II Session Prof. David Gordon
12.30am-13.00pm	Discussion
13.00pm-14.00pm	Lunch break
14.00pm-15.00pm	Current trends in undergraduate medical education, in particular, outcome-based and competence-based assessment processes and their role in the medical course-I Session Prof. David Gordon
15.00pm-15.15pm	Coffee break
15.15pm-16.30pm	Current trends in undergraduate medical education, in particular, outcome-based and competence-based assessment processes and their role in the medical course-II Session Prof. David Gordon
16.30pm-17.00pm	Discussion

24 January
10.10am-11.15am	The use of standards in medical education, and international developments in accreditation of medical schools -I Session Prof. David Gordon
11.15am-11.30am	Coffee break
11.30am-12.30am	The use of standards in medical education, and international developments in accreditation of medical schools-II Session Prof. David Gordon
12.30am-13.00pm	Discussion
13.00pm-14.00pm	Lunch break
14.00pm-15.00pm	The future global role of the doctor in health care - I Session Prof. David Gordon
15.00pm-15.15pm	Coffee break
15.15pm-16.30pm	The future global role of the doctor in health care - II Session Prof. David Gordon
16.30pm-17.00pm	Final discussion and wrap up – Dr. Lika Glonti